

Use of elements in the film Slumdog Millionaire

You will be watching the film in four segments. During each segment you will be thinking about the author's use of a specific design element, but you will choose a different element for each segment.

Record relevant details in the graphic organizer by responding to the prompts.

Design Element, Segment 1:

2 or 3 important questions that focused what I noticed in this segment (note: these may be selected from Handout 5-1: Elements of Cognitive Design).

My response to one of these questions:

Points made by my peers which I would like to add to, challenge, ponder further:

Design Element, Segment 2:

2 or 3 important questions that focused what I noticed in this segment (note: these may be selected from Handout 5-1: Elements of Cognitive Design).

My response to one of these questions:

Points made by my peers which I would like to add to, challenge, ponder further:

Design Element, Segment 3:

2 or 3 important questions that focused what I noticed in this segment (note: these may be selected from Handout 5-1: Elements of Cognitive Design).

My response to one of these questions:

Points made by my peers which I would like to add to, challenge, ponder further:

Design Element, Segment 4:

2 or 3 important questions that focused what I noticed in this segment (note: these may be selected from Handout 5-1: Elements of Cognitive Design).

My response to one of these questions:

Points made by my peers which I would like to add to, challenge, ponder further: